Lieutenant General Delos C. Emons, USAF
Commandant
Armed Forces Staff College
Norfolk 11, Virginia

Dear General Emons:

Thank you very much for your letter of 11 December. You flatter me on my speech-making ability, but you do it so cleverly that I cannot refuse to come down again on 27 February 1948. Either 8:30 or 10:30, as hours, are equally suitable as far as I am concerned. Before that date, I can get in touch with you again to solve the final details.

With kind regards, believe me,

Sincerely,

Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

Your presentation at this college on the "Central Intelligence Agency" was so favorably received that I take great pleasure in extending an invitation to you to speak before our third class which convenes 2 February. I hope that you will be able to honor us with an acceptance.

The subject and method of presentation will be the same as before. Your lecture is scheduled for 1030 on 27 February, which falls in the fourth week of a 21-week course of instruction. The hour can readily be shifted to 0830 or 1030, should you so desire.

The favor of an early reply would be greatly appreciated. With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

/s/Delos C. Emmons
